

This feature allows the user to print a record of a performed counting transaction. The printed receipt indicates the date and time of the performed transaction, as well as the NDC code, drug name, average piece weight and the actual count. The printer can print the receipt automatically when the transaction is finished or manually with the push of the data transfer key.

< Previous | Next >