The user can print a record of any counting procedure. The printout shows date and time of the transaction; NDC code; drug name; production LOT number; average piece weight and the actual count. The printout can be used as a logging tool for counting.

-

-

< Previous | Next >